

TO ADD SOUTHERN MERCHANTS

Southern Railway Has Appointed South American Agent—Extends Trade With Central America.

Washington, D. C., April 6.—To add Southern merchants and manufacturers to extend their trade with Central and South American countries and the West India Islands, particularly the new fields to be opened by the Panama canal through South Atlantic and Gulf Ports, President Fairfax Harrison announces that the Southern Railway, the C. N. O. & T. P., the Alabama Great Southern, and Mobile and Ohio have appointed as South American agent Mr. Charles Lyon Chandler, who has been South American Commercial expert in the consular bureau of the State Department. His office will be at Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mr. Chandler has had years of experience in Latin American countries and is thoroughly acquainted with their markets and the needs of their people. He will advise Southern merchants and manufacturers as to where their wares can be sold, will aid them in the preparation of letters and circulars, and advise as to the methods of packing required for different markets. Mr. Chandler will keep in touch with commercial bodies in Central and South American countries and their diplomatic representatives at Washington and will be able to give Southern business men the earliest possible information in regard to government and other large contracts to be let. He will also immediately begin a campaign in Latin American markets calling attention to goods that can be supplied from the South and the advantages of shipment through Southern ports.

Mr. Chandler is admirably equipped for this work. A Harvard graduate, he studied international law at the University of Buenos Ayers, Argentina, and was for many years in the consular and diplomatic service of the United States, the greater part of this time having been spent in Latin America. His services will be at the disposal of Southern merchants and manufacturers without any charge to them.

Mrs. Douglas, Who in Childhood Inspired Editorial, Now Mother.

New York Sun.

Laura Virginia Douglas, eight pounds, was born last night to Mrs. Edward M. Douglas, of East Orange, at the home of her father, Dr. Philip O'Hanlon, 121 West Ninety-fifth street.

It was Mrs. Douglas, who, as Virginia O'Hanlon, wrote, in September of 1897, a letter to the Sun, which began, "I am 8 years old" and ended "Is there a Santa Claus?"

The late Francis Pharellus Church answered Virginia O'Hanlon's perplexity in an editorial published in the Sun on September 21, 1897, affirming her faith in Santa Claus. This editorial has been reprinted in the Sun on many Christmases and has won for itself a circulation probably wider than any other editorial article ever published. It has been printed in publications in all parts of the world and is known to as many readers as Lincoln's Gettysburg address.

Mrs. Douglas and Laura Virginia were both doing well last night. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas were married last June.

"One of the best reasons why I would not be without telephone service," writes a Georgia farmer, "is the pleasure it gives my wife and the knowledge that while I am away, she has the protection that the telephone gives."

On the farm the telephone dispels loneliness and is the means of bringing help in any emergency that may arise.

If you haven't a telephone on your farm see the nearest Bell Telephone Manager or write for our free booklet and learn how little this service costs.

"FAGGED-OUT" WOMEN

Will Find Help in This Letter.

Overworked, run down, "fagged out" women who feel as though they could hardly drag about, should profit by Mrs. Brill's experience.

She says: "I was in a very weak, run-down condition. Life was not worth living. I could not sleep, was very nervous, stomach bad, and was not able to work."

"I consulted with one or two physicians, without benefit. I read of Vinol helping some one in a similar condition so I began to take it, and it simply did wonders for me. I gained in weight and I am now in better health and stronger than ever. I can not find words enough to praise Vinol."—Mrs. W. H. Brill, Racine, Wis.

Thousands of women and men who were formerly weak and sickly owe their present rugged health to the wonderful strength-creating effects of Vinol. We guarantee Vinol to build you up and make you strong. If it does not we give back your money.

P. S.—For rough, scaly skin, try our Sazo Salve. We guarantee it.
